CIVIL WAR HEROES
of
WHEELING HOLLIDAY POST No. 12

#(

Lorenzo D. Ullom, another of the members of Holliday Post No. 12, Grand Army of the Republic, was only 13 years old when the war broke out, and through more than four years of his youthful heart yearned to enter the conflict. Through those years while he was growing from a little boy into a youth, he saw hundreds and hundreds of the men and older boys answer to their country's call. Finally, however, he enlisted and saw service in the stirring days of the final months of the Civil War.

Enlisted at Wheeling

Mr. Ullom was born at Churches Fork, Wetzel County, W. Va., near Hundred, on May 8, 1848, the son of Alfred and Clarinda Ullom. When he was ten years old he went to work for his father ~~on~~ on the farm. Three years later the war broke out, but he was too young and too small to enlist. Five years later, however, he slipped away to Wheeling, and enlisted as a private in Company G., 7th West Virginia volunteers, under Captain Richard Bingham, with Maj. Marcus Fetty commanding the regiment.

With his regiment young Ullom was sent to Washington, D.C. and from there to Richmond, VA. They had been in Richmond but a short time when President Lincoln was assassinated. After considerable service in Richmond, the company was sent ~~to~~ by boat to Munsons Hill, Va. By the time this tide of battle had definetly turned to victory for the North. The Union of the State was assured. and the war clouds that had obstructed the sun of life for the country for long months and years, were drifting past. A country in mourning for its dead heroes began to look up and get back into the routine of life. Young Ullom's company and regiment marched ~~in~~ to Washington D.C. from Munson's Hills, and ~~there~~ they there entrained for Wheeling, where they were mustered out.

BECOMES CHURCH WORKER

His war life ended, the youth went back to his home, but a few years later his father moved ~~his~~ with ~~[illegible]~~ his family to Bellaire, Ohio. Young Mr. Ullom crossed the river and went to work in the steel mills at Benwood, W. VA. For six years he worked there, and then went into the reorganized church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, with which he has been actively identified since. Mr. Ullom still has a brother, and two sisters living. They are: L. S. Ullom, of Farmington, W.Va; Mrs. Cinderella Miller of Deep Valley, Pa, and Mrs. ~~Joanne~~ Jeanne Kimball of Little, W.Va., Mr. Ullom never married.

The veteran is now 79 years of age but looks much less. He is in good health and is active and enjoying life. A great deal of his time is given over to religious work but he keeps up his affilation with Holliday Post and enjoys getting together with these Companions of those stirring days and reliving in memory those never to be forgotten days of the Civil War

Cemeteries

The map below provides links to each cemetery. You can go to an index of the cemetery by clicking on the map. If you prefer, there is an alphabetical index of the cemeteries below the map. We are walking each of these cemeteries and will add the link when we have completed this. Directions to the cemetery are given at the beginning of each index. Some of these cemeteries have more than one name, so if you can't find the one you're looking for on the map, check the alphabetical index. There is also a listing for known isolated graves in Custer County. Below the table of Custer County Cemeteries, is a listing of cemeteries that border Custer County. We included these cemeteries because many Custer County residents were buried in them. Thank you.
